

Pagan Pride Day 2016
Non-Profit Organizations Opportunities
Information Tables

We invite you to be part of the 1st Annual Eugene Pagan Pride Day. Eugene will be hosting a Pagan Pride fair during the harvest season with the goal of community service, education and the celebration of Pagan beliefs. Eugene Pagan Pride Day (PPD) will be held on Saturday, August 27, 2016 at the Pavilions in Alton Baker Park and will feature a Food Drive for Food for Lane County, workshops, merchants, kids' activities, live entertainment, altar contest and many other fun events. Our main focus is the Harvest Food Drive, we ask everyone to bring a non-perishable food item which supports Food for Lane County. Through the efforts of many, we think our event will be successful and grow. The cost of the event is covered by fundraisers, merchant fees, advertising, a raffle, and donations of many who support the goals of PPD. Please refer to the Non-Profit invitation letter that accompanies this form for more information on specifics for non-profit, Information Tables. There is no fee for a non-profit information table. The coordinator this year is Joy Dances (Joy Germack). You can reach her at 541-912-0251 or email at: anotherjoy@aol.com

Please complete the information below and return to Joy Dances: c/o Joy Germack, P.O. Box 5816, Eugene, OR 97405.

All non-profits MUST be pre-registered and must complete and submit a registration form by August 1st 2016.

Eugene Pagan Pride Day is a religious celebration of the wide diversity of beliefs and practices found among contemporary Pagans. For this reason, we ask that all non-profits if not specifically pagan, be what is considered VERY pagan friendly.

PPD will provide 1/2 of a stone picnic table, about a 10 ft. table, inside the smaller Pavilion. Non-profits will have to provide, decorations for their booth. Set up time is 11:00 am to Noon. The event starts at noon. Please plan to stay until the closing at 6:00 PM.
